The Highest Awards To the Largest House. A. E. W. & Co. have received the following dispatch from a member of the firm: "Chicago, Ill., Oct. 20, 1893. 'Cluett, Coon & Co., Troy, N. Y.' We have received the highest awards given on shirts, collars and cuffs at World's Columbian Exposition."

"F. F. PEABODY." This honor is not only enjoyed, especially by any one who employed an inspection of the perfection of the high-grade goods displayed in the firm's beautiful pavilion at the fair. Nowhere else in the world is there a better workmanship, their maintenance of rigid inspection of work in the factory and their fertility in the progress of progress a steady advance. Since the consolidation the rise and progress of this firm have been phenomenal, until today it stands the largest house in the world in the manufacture of its goods.

Cluett, Coon & Co.'s annual business aggregates millions. The firm employs about 4,000 persons and has a daily capacity of 10,000 dozens of shirts and 4,500 dozens of collars. The firm has branch houses in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Chicago and San Francisco, each with the full equipment of the world in the manufacture of its goods independently of one another and all supplied from the great factory at Troy.

WARRANT SOCIAL UNION. Its First Meeting in the E Street Baptist Church Held Last Night. The first regular meeting this year of the Baptist Social Union of the District took place last night at the E Street Baptist Church, J. D. Davidson, the president, opened the meeting, and a portion of the evening was devoted to the interests of Columbia University. Its work and prospects were spoken of by various members of the faculty, among whom may be mentioned Prof. Moore, dean of the faculty; Dr. Skinner, Prof. Hamilton and Dr. King, president of the medical department. Dr. O. T. Mason of the Smithsonian and Rev. Dr. Stakely of the Baptist Union and Rev. Dr. Stakely of the First Baptist Church, also made speeches during the evening. The music was supplied by the choir of the Fifth Baptist Church, and Miss Carrie Kilday of the Eastern Presbyterian Church rendered a solo. In spite of the weather a large number of members and pastors from the various Baptist churches were present. The union meets once every two months in some one of the twelve white churches of the city. Besides this it gives two banquets annually. The next meeting will be in December. The exercises last night were closed with music. Songs rendered by Prof. Cloward, Misses Jewell, Howell and the choir of the Fifth Baptist Church.
